ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Missile staff of 1961 wishes to express its deep appreciation to the Petersburg Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Edward A. Wyatt, IV, the Cockade Rifles of Petersburg, and the Crater Battlefield Park Service for the invaluable assistance which they have given. The staff would also like to thank them for their time and consideration.

HERITAGE OF THE PAST, INSPIRATION FOR THE FUTURE

The years 1961-1965 commemorate the one-hundredth anniversary of the War Between the States—from the time that the first gun was fired at Fort Sumter in April, 1861, to the heart-breaking surrender at Appomattox in another April, 1865. The Virginia Civil War Centennial Commission plans to re-enact several of the major battles and to depict other aspects of the War. The purpose of this observance is to stimulate interest and to arouse appreciation of the sacrifices of both North and South during these war-torn years. The 1961 Missile joins in this observance by using this War as its theme.

The heritage of the past, from the War Between the States, offers to America its inspiration for the future. This heritage is built on perhaps the greatest show of heroism, bravery, and devotion to ideals that has ever been known.

Petersburg, Virginia, was the area of some of the bloodiest engagements. The Battle of the Crater claimed hundreds of lives from both the Gray and the Blue. An outstanding example of the devotion of the South was in the small force of boys and old men which went out to defend the city from the Northern forces.

THE HAPPY WARRIOR

"Who is the happy Warrior? Who is he
That every man in arms should wish to be?
— — — It is the generous spirit, who, when brought
Among the tasks of real life, hath wrought
Upon the plan that pleased his boyish thought:
Whose high endeavors are an inward light
That makes the path before him always bright . . ."[1]

Mr. Russell B. Gill, principal of Petersburg High School, came to our school from Louisa County in July, 1943. Under his leadership, the Student Cooperative Association and a wider program of student activities have been developed, a guidance program has been set up and the curriculum has been strengthened.

Mr. Gill's devotion to Petersburg is evident in every phase of school life. He believes strongly in the support, both by the community and by the student body, of school activities. To illustrate this point, Mr. Gill says that he has missed only two of Petersburg High School's football games in his seventeen years as principal.

His ability as a leader has received state-wide recognition. He is past president of the Department of Secondary Schools of Virginia and is Chairman of the Group One Board of Virginia.

One of his chief interests is the study of history, particularly Civil War history concerning Petersburg. At one time, he taught history among other subjects, at Warsaw High Schol. His busy schedule does not permit as much time for reading as he would like, but he does particularly enjoy his collection of Civil War books.

Mr. Gill indeed "makes the path before him always bright" with his enduring patience, kindness, generosity, and understanding.

The Missile Staff of 1961, with great pride and deep affection, dedicates the 1961 Missile to the "happy Warrior", Mr. Gill.

The "DICTATOR"

GENERALS

The "Dictator", which is a 13" mortar used by General Grant to shell Petersburg, Virginia, during the Seige of Petersburg, stands as a massive symbol of the intensity of the struggle between the North and the South in the final period of the War.

Those dates were decisive, just as the final year of a senior at PHS is decisive. After the four years of long and sanguinary conflict, the South was ready to rebuild and begin again. In the same manner, a senior, after his four years of successes and defeats, emerges ready to meet new challenges in the "conflicts" of adult life.

SOUTHERN CHIMES

Robert E. Lee

A man upon a white horse rode
Who had the kingly look;
He kept within his heart a code
That came from God's good book.

He fought for what he thought was right
Although his side look'd dark;
Against the North's bright shining light
He left his fabled mark.

Lee's troops gave him the best they had
As all can plainly see;
He made them feel content, so proud
To follow R. E. Lee.

—Lee Smoot

"Blue" and Gray

I'm a barefoot Reb from Tennessee
Who joined the Southern Cav-al-ree.
My uniform was homespun gray,
My horse, he was a plain ole bay.
At Petersburg, my bay was shot
And poundin' the groun' became my lot.
I found me a hound, Ole' Blue I did name.
Together we tree'd Yankees (Jeff Davis' game).
We fought from Richmond to Alabam',
Even foraged us a Virginia ham.
Ole' Blue and me done fought this war
And never seen killing like this before.
We seen men's bodies all forlorn
And sometimes wonder why man was born.
If I do get back to Tennessee
Where me and Ole' Blue can wander free,
I'll find myself a good ole' home
From which I hope I'll never roam.

—Judy Borland

Riches

The sunlight streaming through the trees,
The soft, cool shadows on the earth
Are jewels from the One who sees
And knows the value of our worth.

The gold and silver men have craved
Would buy a royal crown for kings;
But souls by riches are not saved
To God, wealth lies in other things.

We have a long, hard way to go,
But think how glad and rich we'd be
If only we could make ourselves know
That things like smiles and love are free.

—Jean Lynn

Moonlight

Sifted-silver moonlight
Filters o'er the town,
Drifting over trees and yards,
Falling on the ground.

Sifted-silver moonlight
Making nature bright,
Fills all the world with peace,
Lighting up the night.

Just as moonlight gives the earth
Illumination bold,
Just so may the love of God
Illuminate my soul!

—Sandra Wheeler

Surry

My native home lies on the James
When first the settlers stepped on land
While still are heard familiar names
Reminiscent of that English band.

Today there stands a stately home
While lived the son of an Indian maid
And visitors do love to roam
Through the forest to a lovely glade.

Smith built his fort in sixteen-nine
To save the colonists from harm.
It lies secluded among the pine;
It's never lost its rustic charm.

The stately homes along the shore
Which stand today to recall the past;
Of romantic days that are no more
Of chivalry and loves that last.

Today the sleepy village lies
Quietly reminded of the past
By those who come to see our prize
Our heritage renowned at last.

—Mary Wilson Land

Run-Away

The child left his bed rather early,
Quite tousled and drowsy and small.
He peeked at his parents, still sleeping,
And then quietly crept down the hall.

He came to the closet and borrowed,
A handkerchief from the third shelf.
He filled it with all his possessions.
To be sure, he felt pleased with himself.

A pink stone and a book were included
A tin soldier quite faded, not new,
An old coin he had found in the gutter,
And three marbles all speckled with blue.

Then on to the kitchen he sauntered,
Ate until he could hold no more,
Then added some cake to his treasures,
And silently sneaked out the door.

For it seems that his mother had spanked him,
For chores he'd forgotten one day.
Now the puzzle is fitting together.
His pride hurt, he's running away.

But as soon as the cakes had been eaten,
And the treasures seemed heavy as lead,
He willingly gave up his idea,
And returned to his parents and bed.

—Becky Ruffin

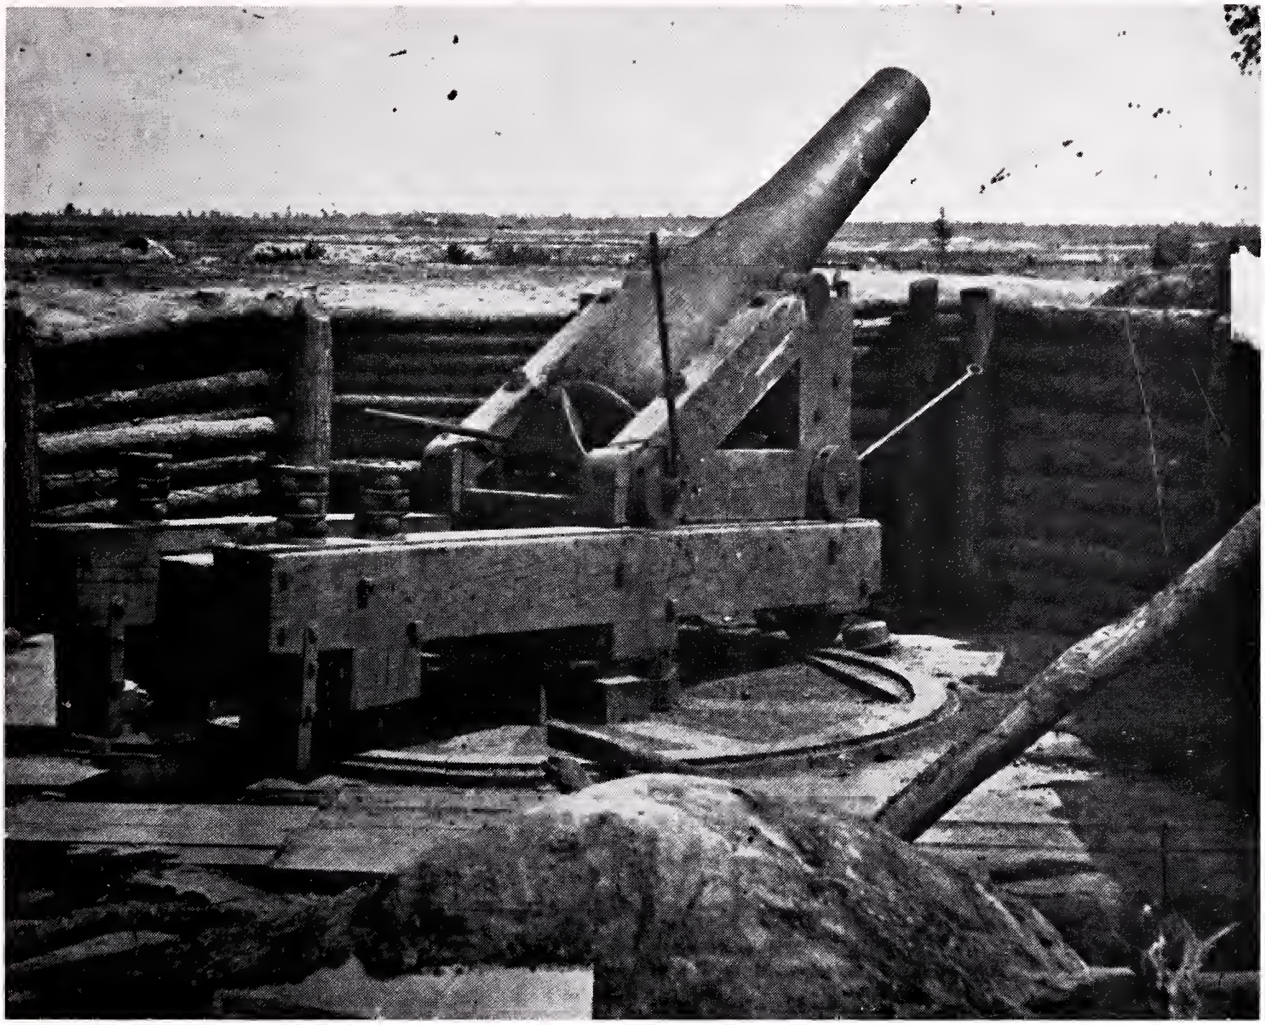
Paradise

There often comes to my ever-wandering mind
A never-to-be-forgotten, ancient thought
Of that sweet paradise I hope to find,
A place where coveted fame can not be bought.

A spacious land where envy dwells no more,
Where men of wealth and greed are not allowed
And our familiar pleasures none deplore,
And where, except to God, no head is bowed.

I hope to be of purest thought and deed,
To that no ill can now befall;
For now, I will let God my footsteps lead,
Until my soul, to Heaven, He shall call.

—Johann Vinson



Large Confederate Gun

LIEUTENANTS

This large gun in the Rebel works at Petersburg, Virginia, is in connection with an interesting anecdote concerning General Lee.

"It is stated that during the fight, Sunday, April 24, 1865, General Lee stood on the little knell in the foreground, and actually shed tears when he saw his own troops being driven back by the Union soldiers".*

At many times, the juniors have faced discouraging moments when the problems to be faced seemed very difficult. They must remember that such proud and happy moments, as they have already had with the Ring Dance, lie ahead for them in 1962.

Crossed Rifles

SERGEANTS

Just as soldiers are introduced to new types of weapons and equipment, the sophomores become better acquainted with such formidable subjects as Latin and Math. During the year, they come in contact with their first Shakespearean play, Julius Caesar, and also, in Latin, Caesar's Gallic wars.

The sophomores are given experience in accepting responsibility when they sponsor the Homecoming Weekend in the fall.

Sabers

PRIVATES

A saber is used by a soldier in hand-to-hand combat. In much the same manner, the freshmen compete in a contest among their homerooms. The purpose of it is to stimulate interest in school-sponsored activities. Points are won by homerooms having good participation in activities, a high percentage of attendance, and a low percentage of conduct time.

Pennsylvania Monument.

Each year, the clubs have left many reminders of their services to Petersburg High School. Whether these reminders are the memories of a lovely concert or play, or something tangible like a gift to the school, they serve as monuments which show the loyalty and devotion of the students.

MISSILE

Although our Missile is fired only once a year, it always seems to make the school year go over with a big "bang"!

It takes all the staff members to make the Missile the success that it is, and you can be sure that each person works hard!

The Missile, besides being a guidebook of school activities, serves as our "family album" and will always be a source of happy memories of life at P.H.S.

Anyone interested in working on the Missile may become a member of the Missile staff.

"The Heart of the Confederacy"

The heart of P.H.S. is the S.C.A., an administrative organization whose aim is the betterment of Petersburg High School and the well-being of each student.

A representative and an alternate one of whom attends each weekly meeting are elected by the students of each homeroom. Every student has the right to express his ideas or suggestions about school affairs through his representative.

The S.C.A., which has many projects such as Honor Week, Friendship Week, and the Honor Code, is the leader of school activities.

KEY CLUB

Key Club members are all Southern gentlemen indeed. Each boy is a living example of the spirit of brotherhood and citizenship at P.H.S.

To become a member a boy must have good grades, must show qualities of leadership and good sportsmanship, and must have an invitation approved by a faculty committee headed by Mr. Russell B. Gill, principal.

The Key Club sweetheart, Rosemary Rudy, was presented to the school in a special assembly held on October 18, 1960.

"I take pen in hand . . ."

This trite expression is characteristic of most of the letters which were written by the soldiers, Yankee and Confederate, to their folks back home. We are proud to say that the members of the Commercial Club are able to write more original letters and that they make fewer mistakes in spelling and grammar.

Any student who is taking a commercial subject (typing, shorthand, or bookkeeping) may join the club.

As a project for this year the members sewed their own monograms for their club sweaters.

"Index Appeal"

Although the Weekly News is not as old as the Progress-Index, which was called the Index Appeal during the Civil War, the journalistic efforts which it contains are in most ways just as mature.

The Weekly News, a Sunday feature of the Progress-Index, contains news stories, editorials and feature articles of school interest.

Any senior taking the academic English course may write for the Weekly News.

VARSITY CLUB

"Git there fustest with the mostest"
—General Nathan B. Forrest

The words of General Nathan Bedford Forrest, famous Confederate Calvary officer and raider, might well be applied to the Varsity Club. Each boy in the Varsity Club has demonstrated that he knows the importance of hustle and drive in sports, by earning his letter in a major sport, the main requirement for membership.

Besides helping to promote good sportsmanship, the club has several projects this year such as parking cars at basketball games and other school events, and providing a Christmas basket for a needy family in Petersburg.

Halt! Present Pass!

Halt! Present Pass! could reasonably be the motto of the Library Staff for that seems to be the favorite expression of each member. The staff is responsible for checking books in and out, keeping the books in order, helping students find appropriate books, and stamping passes.

Anyone who is interested in serving the school by helping in the library is invited to join the Library Staff.

"Corps of Engineers"

The members of the Projection Crew may be considered engineers in their own right. They not only operate the film projectors; they are sometimes called upon to repair broken machines.

Any student who has ever seen a classroom film is indebted to the crew because more than likely one of the members was responsible for showing the film.

A well-wrapped package is the symbol of the Distributive Education Club because it represents the final goal of all salesmen. Besides taking the D.E. Course, members get valuable pointers in good salesmanship from businessmen who speak at club meetings. D.E. members also obtain jobs in local stores.

The Diversified Occupations Club, the D.O., helps the students get training for a field of work which they choose. All members take the D.O. Course and junior and senior members get on-the-job training by attending school half a day and working the other half.

"Attention!"

Any school group which attracts as much attention as the Majorettes do would be hard to find. The high-stepping majorettes perform with the band at pep rallies, football games, parades, and other events. The majorettes lend an air of gaiety in a way that nothing else could.

The six girls were chosen because of their ability to march and perform their routines well, as well as on the basis of their genial personalities.

"Colors"

When the word "colors" is mentioned, many people think of flags (Confederate flags, Old Glory, etc.), but the talented students in the Art Class think only of colors such as red, blue, green, or brown.

These students study the basic principles of water and oil painting and spend a great deal of time experimenting on their own works.

The beginners' class which is open to any interested student meets on Monday afternoons at school, while the advanced pupils meet at Mrs. Musgrove's studio at the Petersburg School of Fine Arts on Wednesday nights.

Projects include visiting art museums and presenting appropriate paintings to the school.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Plays were presented during the War Between the States by soldiers to break the motonony of camp life and to build the morale. One such play, "The Battle of Gettysburg", was presented in 1863 at Johnson's Island by Confederate prisoners who called themselves "Rebel Thespians."

The members of the Dramatics Club entertain their audiences by productions of various types, and every play they present is a smashing success.

Members work backstage on props, lighting, or costumes, or have roles in plays. The casts are chosen by a try-out which is open to the entire school, and those chosen for parts automatically become members of the Dramatics Club.

The club presents at least one play a year.

Membership is open to those who are interested in the field of dramatics.

"WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME"

Most of the songs that we call Civil War songs were played by bands organized to keep the morale of the soldiers high. The P.H.S Band is organized to keep school morale high and to provide an outlet for the musical interests of band members.

A bandsman is chosen on the basis of sportsmanship and enthusiasm as well as musicianship, and for this reason the band is one of the more influential school groups.

The band is divided into two groups: the Marching Band, which performs at pep rallies, football games, and at the Christmas Parade; and the Concert Band, which plays more sophisticated music, of which about two-thirds is classical. The Concert Band gives an annual spring concert in May.

Girls' Ensemble

The Girls' Ensemble is a group of twelve girls chosen from the entire Glee Club. The members present special numbers at the concerts and often perform for audiences outside of school.

This year the ensemble has sung Christmas music for the Rotary Club, the Federated Women's Club, the Optimist Club, and the Cockade City Garden Club, and has performed on the WSSV radio program, "Teens, Tunes, and Topics".

"Southern Serenaders"

Everyone who has heard P.H.S.'s "Southern Serenaders" agrees that the Glee Club is an organization of which every student can be proud. The Glee Club presents two concerts each year: one at Christmas and the other in the spring. Members practice long and hard so that each may be a success. Glee Club members are chosen by tryout.

This year a Senior Choir and a Girls' Ensemble have been organized to perform outside of school and present special numbers at the concerts.

SENIOR CHOIR

The Senior Choir is a select. mixed ensemble. These members are chosen from the Glee Club on the basis of their reading ability and general musicianships. This group performs more difficult music than the entire Glee Club.

The members have performed at the district festival and before civic clubs such as the Rotary Club and the Federated Women's Club and presented a special Christmas radio program.

MONITORS CLUB

Our P.H.S. "pickets" keep order in the halls during class changes and in the cafeteria during recesses and perform other highly appreciated services.

Although you may feel like a Yankee spy if you're caught going the wrong way around the poles at the top of the stairs, you will not be shot at dawn. The Monitors may be recognized by their crimson and gold P.H.S. arm bands.

One project of the Monitors this year was to mark each auditorium seat with the number of the homeroom to which it had been assigned.

The members of the club, all seniors, were chosen by Mr. A. T. Pennington, the sponsor, and Tommy Lee, the president.

Battle of Five Forks

SPORTS

"The battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton." This statement is attributed to the Duke of Wellington, the famous "Iron Duke" who conquered Napoleon. The athletic fields of this well-known preparatory school in England provided, in the Duke's estimation, the valuable training for the ordeals to which these boys might be subjected in their military careers.

Thus it is shown that from sports comes the true preparation for the "battles" of life. A "soldier" on an athletic field gains knowledge of the importance of sincerity, honesty, fair-play, and sportsmanship. These principles are the very ideals for which brother fought brother in the War Between the States. Each side, both North and South, had such very deep faith in their beliefs and had the courage of their convictions even to fight a bitter and bloody war.

Heroism is composed of many faces--an athletic field, a battlefield in a war, and most important, in the ever-moving tide of human life.

VARSITY BASEBALL

The Petersburg High School Varsity Baseball Team, under the guidance of Coach Robert Churn, began its fine season with a crushing victory over Wakefield High School.

Led by Chris Tisdale's All-Central District performance, eight Seniors finished out their high school baseball careers with a very creditable 9 win and 7 loss season.

The loss of the complete pitching staff plus almost the whole first string will present a problem, but with the same fine coaching, a successful season should be in store for 1961.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL

The first four games of the Junior Varsity Baseball Team gave every indication of a long season, but the team did a complete about-face to win its next six games by impressive margins.

The Baby Wave, consisting of freshmen and sophomores, finished their startling 6-4 season led by Jim Rosenstock, Kirk Jones, Richard Ramsey, and through the co-operation of the whole team.

TRACK

Petersburg High School's 1959-1960 track and field team, under the skillful coaching of Mr. Bob Howard and Mr. Stan Brown, posted a very creditable .500 percentage in Central District competition. After an initial heartbreaking loss to strong Highland Springs, 56-57, the Wave striderss defeated Prince George, Southampton, and Thomas Dale in dual track meets, and placed second in the Hopewell-Petersburg-Thomas Dale triangular meet.

Led by Earl Hawkins, Bennie Kirkland, Cleve Wright, Newton Georgel, and Ronnie Skelton, the track team set a total of eleven new school records at Cameron Field. The Wave developed one of the best 880 and mile relay teams in the district. The quartet of Jimmy Kuska, Robert Vaughan, Ronnie Cook, and Bennie Kirkland was beaten only once in seven meets.

Five of 1960's outstanding performers will be lost next season: Wright, a transfer to Woodberry Forest; Kuska, Cook, Bishop, and M. Hawkins via graduation.

Benny shows hurdler's stretch.

Jimmy pants to victory.

GOLF

The 1960 Petersburg High School Golf Team, which won the Central District title with a 6 wins and no loss record, is handled expertly by Coach Robert Budlove.

For the first time, a P.H.S. golf team was entered in the State High School Golf Tournament, where the four-man team placed eighth.

The lettermen were: Tommy Butler, Cooper Pearce, Terry Lescure, Sonny Richardson, Lou Siegel, Tommy McGeever, and Mac Corter.

TENNIS

Under the capable coaching of Mr. Robert Kilbourne and with assistance from Mrs. Helen Brooks, the P. H. S. tennis team performed admirably in 1960.

Captain Jerry Rudy led a 12 to 0 blasting of the Tee Jay "B" team to start the season. The inability of this Tee Jay team to appear for the final match kept the team from obtaining a 4-4, .500 season.

VARSITY

Third place in the Central District, its best record since 1946, top individual scorer in the state, and Central District recognition of seven of its outstanding players: these were the accomplishments of the 1960 Wave football squad.

The big Wave romped over seven of its opponents, allowing only two losses, and battling out one tie with second-place Highland Springs. Much credit must go to head coach Bob Howard and his assistants, Stan Brown and Hubert Payne, whose determination and hard work whipped these boys into one of the best teams Petersburg has had in many a year. Highlights of the season were a 21-0 defeat over favored Thomas Jefferson, a 33-0 romp over arch-rival Hopewell, and an exciting 21-19 win over tough Douglas Freeman in the last game of the season.

Outstanding players received Central District recognition. On the first team, All-Central District, was Earl Hawkins, halfback, with Tommy Kidd, center, making the second team. Honorable mention went to Lynn Parrish, end; Newton Georgel, tackle; Van Robertson, guard; Buddy Fisher and Doug Traylor, backfield.

Special honors go to Earl Hawkins who, through his all-around excellence in performance, was the top scorer in the state and was selected to the All-Central District, All-State, All-Southern, and All-American high school teams.

JAYVEE FOOTBALL

Hustle, desire to win, good coaching, four wins and only two losses--these were the highlights of the 1960 Junior Varsity squad. An added attraction was the team's win over the Hopewell Jayvees which occurred with the Varsity's win to make a double slam in the Blue Devil's face.

The team was led scorewise by Aubrey Townsend with thirty-six points. He was supported in the backfield by Hugh Powell, Jack Beck--Co-Captain of the team, Bobby Bowman, and Jerry Blick. The Baby Wave line was bolstered by the other Co-Captain—Leamon Covington, David Gill, Buck Maddra, Howard Jones, Tommy Jones, Mac Harris, Vaughan Lunsford and the excellent coaching of Mr. Bill McCotter.

Wave Has Surprising Season

The 1960-1961 Wave basketball team, starting the year with no returning lettermen, finished the season with a respectable 10 and 9 record. The Wave's 8–6 record in district play was good enough to earn them the fifth position in the Central District standing.

The Wave started the season off with two thrilling victories over Prince George and George Wythe, but then faced three of Virginia's top teams—Highland Springs, Thomas Jefferson, and Midlothian, losing all three. At mid-term Bob Kilbourne's cagers had compiled a fair 5–6 record.

After exams, the Wave, having gained valuable experience, came on strong, upsetting highly-rated John Marshall, winner of the Central District Tournament; and they gained sweet revenge by beating Hopewell in sudden death on Lee Smoot's game-ending jump shot.

The tournament pitted Petersburg against John Marshall. Although the Wave outscored the Justices in the second half, they could not overcome a thirteen point half deficit and lost 63–52.

The scoring was led by Lou Siegel and Pete Feil, both having identical 10.6 averages. Jimmy Pannill was the top rebounder, while Lee Smoot was the little floor general. Jim Rosenstock, Dougie Traylor, and Bobby Douthat played well alternating at the guard spot. The Wave had strong reserves in Kirk Jones and Hugh Powell.

Junior Varsity Basketball

The PHS Baby Wave, led by Coach Hubert Payne, turned in their most impressive effort in recent years with a 15 win—3 loss ledger. Using a zone press defense and run-shoot offense, the Jayvees mastered most of their opponents easily.

At mid-season Kirk Jones and Hugh Powell were advanced to the Varsity squad. This action in no way hampered the Jayvee's victory march.

In the coming basketball season, many of these Jayvees will become material for the PHS Varsity team.

First row: M. Rose, B. Kutcher, T. Lescure, W. Smith, D. Hopkins, S. Richardson. Second row: H. Jones, S. Floyd, D. Coffin, M. Horne, R. Ramsey. Third row: Manager, M. Diamond, D. Cseh, K. Jones, C. Ruffa.

First row: F. Durham, R. Siegel, J. Ferrell, Roy Hinton, R. Worth. Second row: C. Tyree, Ray Hinton, D. Billups. Third row: J. Hathaway, J. VanLandingham, C. Tobias, M. Harris.

Ninth Grade Basketball

The Ninth Grade Basketball team finished another successful season with a splendid eight win—two loss record. The losses were to the Waverly Varsity and the PHS Jayvees.

Ricky Siegel and Carl Tobias led the scoring parade with 13.5 and 10.3 averages, respectively. The rebounding and all-around team play of Ray Hinton, Mac Harris, and Robin Worth contributed to the success of the freshmen hoopsters.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

The 1960 Softball season was a building season for the Wavelets. Since they had only two lettermen returning, Sylvia Matthews, the captain of the team, and Mary Jo Tudor; the team's worst enemy was inexperience.

Although the Wavelets won only one game—the contest with Hopewell—the girls showed fine spirit throughout their games. Sylvia Matthews led the team with a .454 average and Shirley Slate came in second with an average of .371.

At the end of the year, Sylvia Matthews received her fourth year star and Mary Jo Tudor received her third year star. First year lettermen were: Shirley Slate, Sandra Emory, Linda Walker, Marie Walker, Susan Myers, Barbara York, Ruth York, Janet Dilday, and Connie Chambers.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

"It not winning the game that counts, but how you play it." Although the Wavelets dropped all seven of their games to their opponents, Petersburg High School was well represented by good sportsmanship and conduct.

The main factor contributing to these losses was inexperience. Phyllis Marshall and Shirley Slate were co-captains for the 1960 season.

Shirley Slate received her fourth year award this year while Phyllis Marshall received her third. Second year awards were given to Gloria Edwards and Mary Berryman. First year awards were given to Helen Grammar, Daisy Chappel, Hazel Carlisle, Barbara Poole, Nancy Nunnally, Mary Ellen Edgerton, Barbara Durley, Shirley Cornett.

Coach Ann VanLandingham was assisted this year by Helen Wall, a former PHS hockey player.

Tournament Held at Petersburg

The Wavelets played host to six other schools at the All Prep Basketball Tournament this season. Susan Myers, a guard for the Wavelets, was selected to the reserve team.

The girls' most spirited contest was the game lost to Thomas Jefferson by one point. Co-captain Diane Slaughter and co-captain Mary Jo Tudor were the only returning lettermen. Mary Jo and Diane will receive their third and fourth year awards, respectively. Susan Myers, Lala Baggett, Connie Chambers, Barbara York, Juanita Reese, Phyllis Marshall, Mary Ellen Edgerton, and Mary Berryman will receive their first basketball letters.

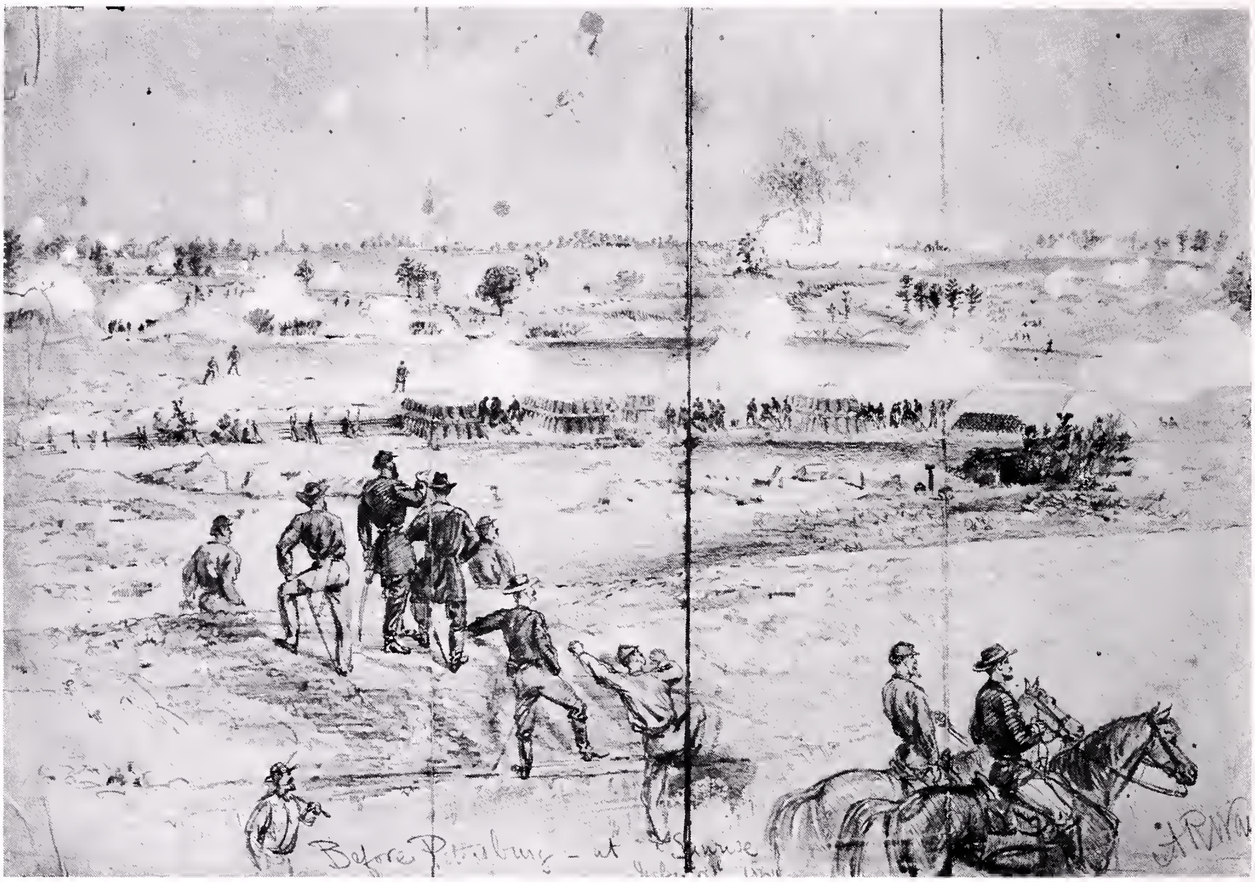
CHEERLEADERS

Our cheerleaders do rally the morale of the Crimson Wave in a big way. They are present at every pep rally and every football and basketball game, whether at home or away. Their "get-up-and-go" always helps the team "get-up and win"!



THE FIRING LINE

The core of Petersburg High School activities is the Student Cooperative Association, which enables us to prepare ourselves for leadership in government in our own community. Each summer some of Petersburg High's students attend Girls' State and Boys' State. These conventions present occasions which allow the participants to become acquainted with situations which they will have to cope with in the future. All of these opportunities give us a chance to gain knowledge from older students and also to become adjusted to the way of living with others. By taking advantage of these experiences, we develop—for experience is the best teacher.

Mr. Powers talks about papers while anxious students look on.

Jimmy Porter, Michael Feinberg, Whitey Lunsford, Mary Lee Ashly, and Michael Diamond are busily learning to type.

Stuart Spero, Jimmy Powers, Johann Vinson, Benny Kirkland, Charles Joyner, and the rest of the solid geometry class take a leisure day.

Arriving at Petersburg High are students from every corner of the city. The front porch and steps are crowded with students catching up on the latest news or discussing the day's activities, while other students are already in their homerooms preparing last minute studies. At this time of morning, the school library is usually buzzing with students. We all feel that these few leisure minutes each morning pass much too quickly, for before one realizes the time, it is 8:55. Then there is a frantic rush to homerooms to get ready for another school day.

Miss Doan has an interesting Latin class with some lack of attention.

Mr. Alexander explains some trig while Ronnie Skelton and Bill Haile look on puzzled.

9:05 brings the first period bell and students rush to classes all over the building. Awaited by monitors at each flight of stairs, wearing familiar crimson and gold armbands, we are corrected if we go on the wrong side of the poles. Throughout the school, students endure a rough hour of physics, while others learn skills such as typing, or enjoy a study hall. Biology students find it interesting to study all kinds of plants and animals. The students taking Distributive Education or Diversified Occupations have jobs and attend school at the same time. Home Economics classrooms have tempting odors of the tasty dishes prepared by the busy girls. Physical Education students may enjoy a game of baseball, basketball, or hockey. Other students may take a class period to visit one of our consultants, who have offices of their own. Whatever we do, we gain knowledge only through cooperation and hard work.

Everyone hurriedly rushes from first period to his homeroom, where a half-hour of confusion begins. Some harass their homeroom teachers for library slips; others go to various meetings. Students staying in their homerooms study for tests or do homework. They are not excluded by any means from the school activities. Usually they are asked to buy a subscription to the school newspaper, purchase the annual, or return an overdue library book. At this time the library becomes crowded, as so many students try to do research work or find a book for that next book report. Frequently there is an assembly program lined up for homeroom period which always proves to be of interest to everyone. Lunch period, which is divided into three recesses, is booming with activity. Before lunch each day, a quiet moment of prayer is spent in the cafeteria. After lunch, students study or talk until time for their next class.

Linda Maxey relates a weird story to Jerry Kvasnicka in the Spring play.

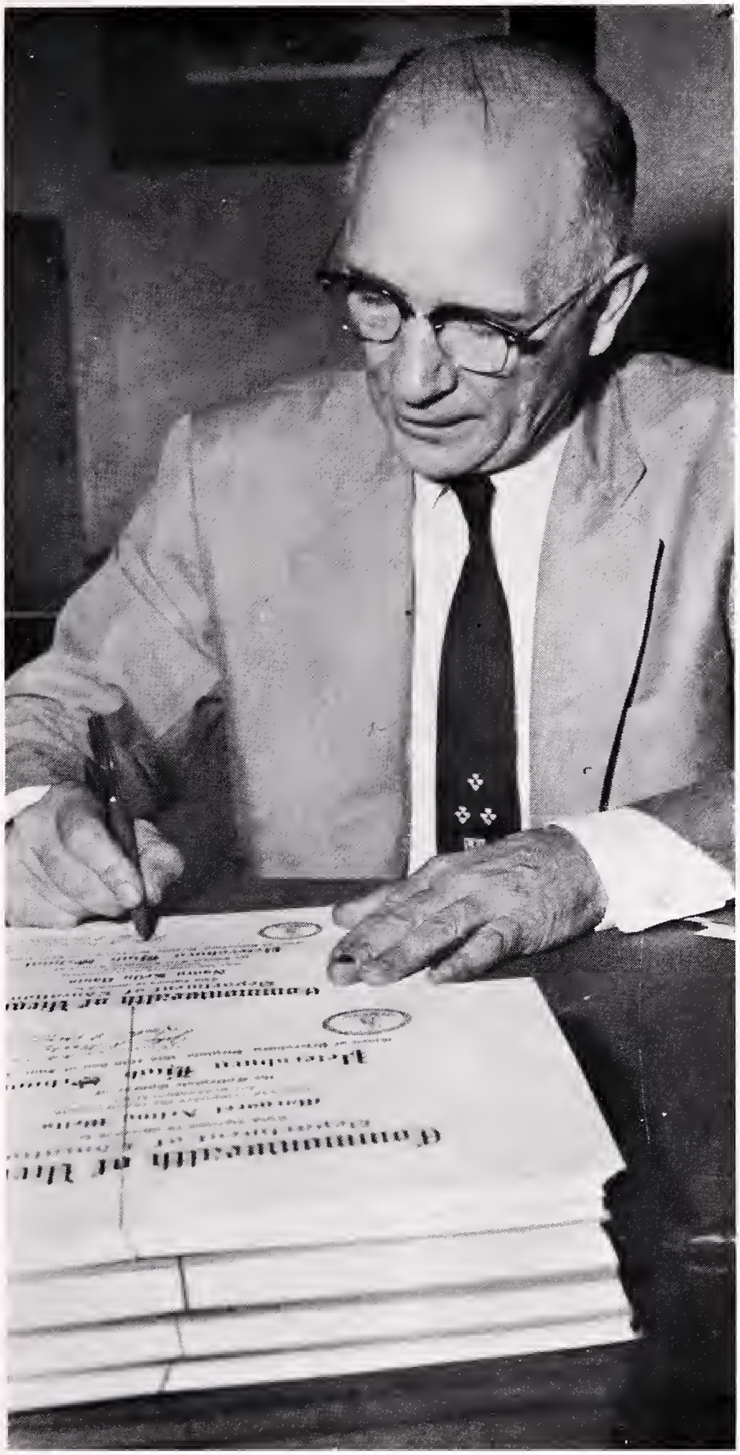
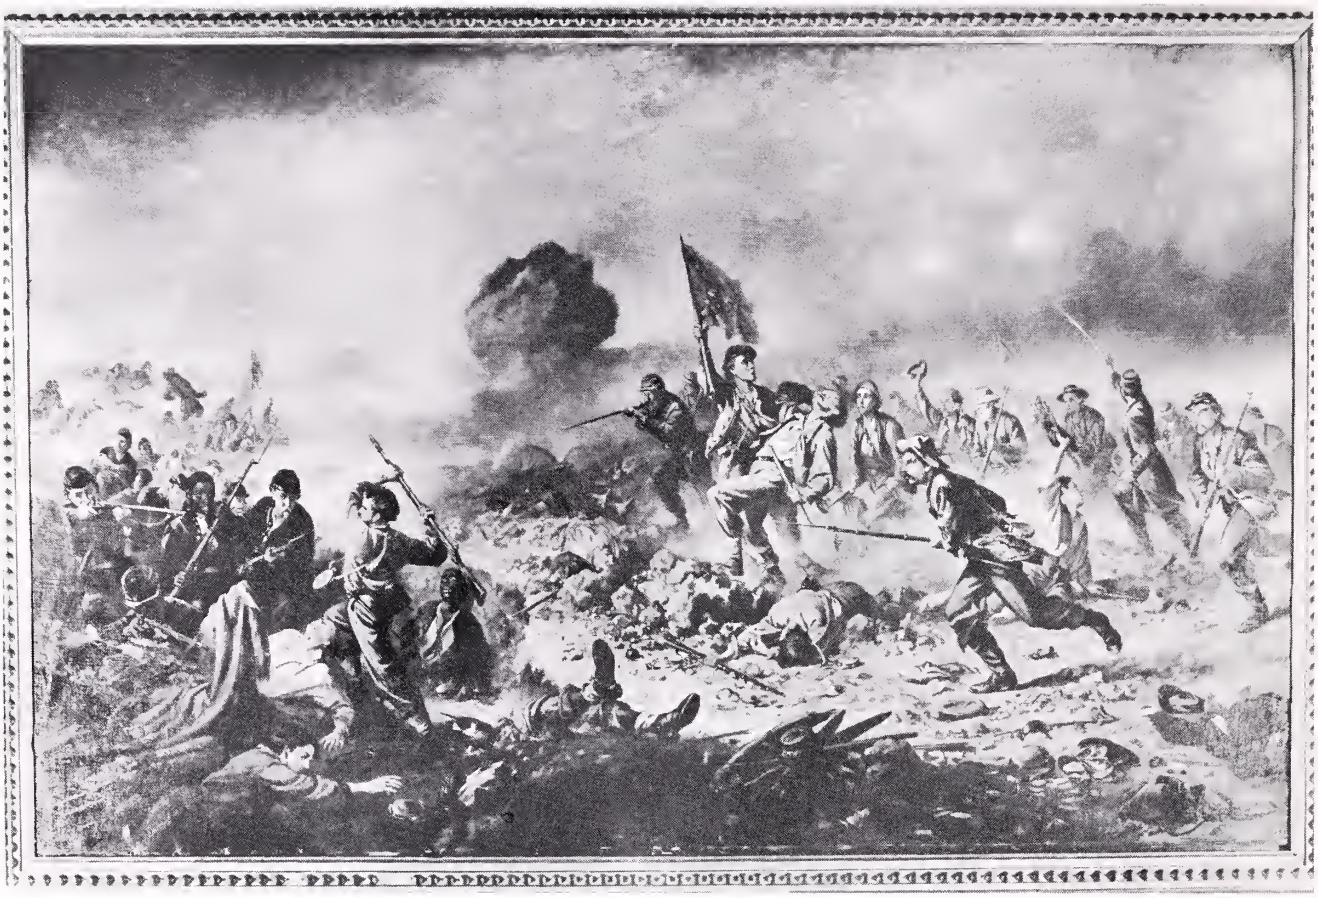
Many couples dance at the Homecoming Dance held on Saturday night after the big game.

The French Club booth, decorated very colorfully, is being visited by Larry Tucker, Jean Lynn, and Heath Ellis at the Homecoming game.



The happy hours spent during our school days are not confined only to hours of school. One could never forget the hours of band practice before and after school, the moments of fun and hard work on the "Missile" or the "Review" staff, the jubilant pep rallies, the Junior Ring Dance, the Senior Prom, and sports activities. Everyone awaits the Homecoming game, dance, and crowning of our Homecoming Queen. Each fall, Initiation Day brings many hilarious creatures to school. There isn't a person who enters his senior year without thinking of Senior Slop Day and that momentous occasion —Graduation. For each senior class, the Rotary Club of Petersburg presents a banquet and a dance. No student could leave Petersburg High School without opportunities for service and leadership and a mind full of pleasant memories.



THE BATTLE OF THE CRATER

The Battle of the Crater was one of the bloodiest engagements on the battlefields of Virginia. It took place just outside Petersburg, Virginia.

A mine shaft tunnel, engineered by Lt. Col. Henry Pleasants and built by the Union troops, extended from the edge of the Union encampment to a terminus well within the Confederate camp. The plan was to place underneath the Confederate lines four tons of powder which would explode and throw the Rebel forces into chaos. At this point the Union troops would attack with a hope of utterly demolishing the Southerners. They saw as a reward for their efforts the capitulation of Petersburg and, perhaps, the end of the War.

Just as this battle did not end the War Between the States, a young person's education does not stop with a high school diploma. Whether he goes on to college or into the world of business and commerce, he is sure to continue learning and to build on his previous knowledge throughout his life.

SIGNAL TOWERS

Signal towers such as this one were used by both Confederate and Union armies during the War Between the States. Their purposes were manifold—they provided an advantage in height from which a sentry could look down and warn about approaching troops; they were used to locate enemy camps; and to overlook the general terrain.

The Petersburg businesses have much the same purposes—their "sentries" are always on the alert for changes and innovations in the business world, they watch over the "general terrain" of the commercial universe and are well-informed about new ways of doing things and current ideas.

We appreciate their support of the 1961 Missile and urge that the Petersburg High School students patronize our advertisers.

After commencement, what are you going to commence?

Before you make your final decision, consider a telephone career. You'll start with good pay. What's more, you'll earn frequent raises as you learn. And the training you receive is excellent. You'll also enjoy interesting work, friendly people and pleasant surroundings. And you'll have the satisfaction of serving your own community. So why not commence a rewarding career with a telephone job?

GOOD GAS SERVICE MAKES WARM FRIENDS

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES !

Although now you are graduates, you can do a great service for the rest of us, if you never cease to be students — looking for opportunities and ways to cherish the American system of free enterprise and to improve the American way of life. You can be thankful for free schools in a country where you are free to worship and work and think and talk as you please. This is your heritage from the people who built America.

THE FUTURE is pretty largely in your hands — you must be vigilant and active to combat the evils of socialism, government domination of private industry, and all the "isms" that destroy democracy. We depend upon you to do a good job.

(1) All the business which passes through the office keeps secretary Grace Boswell busy. (2) Bob Eanes and Johnny Gill glance through the magazines in the library. (3) Senior editors, Becky Ruffin and Sandra Jamison, alphabetize the Senior Directory. (4) Cheerleader Sally Roper paints part of the "We Love Our Wave" poster. (5) Benny Kirkland gets a closer look at the football trophies. (6) A distraught Mr. Sutherland distributes the senior pictures. (7) Jerry Warren remonstrates Marie Blick for an overdue library book. (8) An editor of the Junior Section, Brenda Rayhorn, prepares individual pictures. (9) The PHS band salutes the Friday night fans at Cameron Field. (10) Mrs. Moore, cafeteria supervisor, keeps an eye on the cafeteria attendants. (11) Voting for the Homecoming Queen is organized by Van Robertson, SCA representative, and Jim Pannill. (12) Concentration is apparent during Activities Period—Billy Parcells, Tommy Lee, and Bobby Douthat prepare for the next period. (13) Science instructor, Mrs. VanHorn, signs Richard Wall's pass. (14) One of Ronnie Scharr's duties as the basketball team manager is the care of the uniforms. (15) Mr. Pennington casts an inquiring glance at Johann Vinson.
